DETAILED ACTION

Applicant noted in the last response that the IDS filed January 19, 2001 has not been signed and returned to the applicant. After careful examination of the application, the examiner can not locate the IDS. Applicant is requested to send an additional copy of the IDS with the response to this restriction requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7, drawn to a composition comprising particles of bioactive glass, classified in class 428, subclass 370 and class 424 subclass 489.
- II. Claims 8, 9, 12, and 13, drawn to a method for minimizing the production of TNF-alpha, classified in class 435, subclass 69.5.
- III. Claims 10, 14, and 15, drawn to a method for increasing IL-6 levels in a patient, classified in class 424, subclass 85.2
- IV. Claim 11, drawn to a composition comprising particles, classified in class 424, subclass 489.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II as well as inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case it is well known in the art that compositions comprising bioactive glass can be used for many purposes other than the two purposes claimed by applicant.

Inventions II and IV as well as III and IV are also related as product as process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case it is well known in the art that compositions comprising particles can be used for many purposes other than the two purposes claimed by applicant, the purpose being dependant upon what active ingredient is incorporated into the composition.

Inventions II and III are unrelated as they are two completely separate methods.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: intramuscular administration, intraperitoneal administration, and intravenous administration.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Art Unit: 1615

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
